ABOUT MY FEES

Dear Patient:

Your fee is based on the time I spend with you during your visit, the complexity of your medical condition, and any treatment I provide. But proper attention to your care also requires that I – or members of my staff – spend additional time beyond that which we spend with you in the office. Such time may be used to:

- Create or maintain your permanent medical record
- Review, interpret, and document all lab test results and communicate those results orally or in writing to you.
- Review current x-ray or scan reports, compare them with reports of previous scans, and when the studies are abnormal, consult with the radiologist
- Prepare and mail consultation reports and letters suggesting patients come in for a follow-up visit
- Consults via phone about your case with referring or consulting physicians and other health care providers
- Prepare referral letters to additional specialists, as needed
- Prepare patient educational materials
- Conduct medical research relevant to your case
- Communicate with pharmacies about your prescriptions
- Complete insurance applications and claim forms
- Conduct utilization review negotiations with hospital and insurance companies
- Review and manage hospital records
- Draft letters of necessity to obtain medical services, instruments, or prescriptions that you need
- Arrange for hospital admissions and follow-up consultations with nurses, attending physicians, and house staff
- Draft reports and forms, including home health care orders and nursing facility orders

All of these activities add to our cost of doing business. Still, we are committed to providing you the best possible care at the lowest cost. We hope this explanation of our fees has been helpful. With you, our patient, we look forward to a lasting and healthy relationship.

Sincerely,

Dicky Bhagat, M.D.
